

Merrimack County

Merrimack County has a somewhat younger age profile than the state and home sales will benefit from that and the large number of 45 to 54 year old households. There may be somewhat fewer families with children over the next 5 years, but the number of young adults 25 to 34 is holding steady.